

Timaru Herald

26 November 2011

Bid for business title

Two Christchurch teenagers are among five finalists vying for the first-ever title of New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants (NZICA) Young Managing Director of the Year Award, part of the annual Lion Foundation Young Enterprise Scheme National (YES) Awards. James Agnew, of St Thomas of Canterbury College, and Jaden Milligan, of Christchurch Boys' High School, are both managing directors of two separate companies established by their fellow pupils. The winner will receive $1,000, a trophy and a trip to the awards in Wellington on Wednesday.