

A humorous, sensitive and surprising view of our world through the eyes of Marty, a boy with autism who decides it's high time to join in.

ONE FRIEND IS ALL YOU NEED...

yes

Deborah Burnside

YES by Deborah Burnside

Marty might have trouble reading people, organizing things or pleasing his father, but he knows that when his mate Luke — Legless — attempts to involve him in another crazy venture, it's futile to resist. This time it's the Young Enterprise Scheme. Reluctantly, Marty says YES. And what comes next is a whole lot bigger and weirder than he could ever have imagined...

Deborah Burnside is part of the New Zealand Book Council's Writers in Schools and delivers fun and informative writing workshops tailored to your curriculum needs. If you would like Deborah to visit your school go to:

www.bookcouncil.org.nz

 Find Deborah Burnside